Manuscripts
Contributions that further the aims of the Journal are welcomed, and will be refereed. Manuscripts should be typed single-sided on A4 paper, double-spaced. Two copies of the article should be submitted and the author’s name, affiliation and address should be attached to the cover, to facilitate anonymity in the refereeing of the article. One copy should be of good quality print, preferably laser-printed, although this is not essential. The article can also be sent on computer disc, either in WP51 or Mac format. The article should begin with an abstract of approximately 200 words. In general the use of footnotes is discouraged. Essential footnotes should be kept to a minimum and typed consecutively at the end of the article. Within the body of the text references to authors is made by author, date and page number in the following way:

"We find that Makola (1982a:67) argues the view taken by Nkosana (1981). Another study (Makola, 1982b), however...

Bibliographical references follow the body of the text and should be listed alphabetically and chronologically by author and date: in the case of books, by title, publisher and place of publication; in the case of articles by full journal name, volume, and first plus last page numbers; in the case of chapters, by title, collection title, editor, publisher and place of publication. Examples follow:

References

Authors receive five complimentary offprints of their article and the relevant Journal issue. Book reviewers will receive one complimentary copy of the Journal in which the review appears.

Submission of an article implies that it has not been published already nor is it being considered for publication elsewhere.
