Social Work With Groups links the vitality of the history of social work and the contemporary richness and complexity of psychosocial orientation of the profession. Both theoretical and practical materials are featured, offering useful knowledge and skills to all human service professionals working with the small group.

"Exquisite! The format, selection of articles, and quality are outstanding. I know of no other 'group' journal comparable to this one!"

G. L. Butler, Chapman,
Social Work With Individuals & Groups,
