* Marian Lacey died recently after a long illness. One of her last letters was to renew membership on this board with ideas about popularising the journal in the eastern Cape. She was for many years fundamental in the generation of critical ideas about society in that part of the country and South African academic and intellectual life will sorely miss her.

Readers will note a new editorial format for Transformation. We are now creating two separate categories, one of editors within the country who can play a supporting task for the journal, and another, of foreign editors, who will also be able to aid the journal but inevitably at a greater distance. The present list is still somewhat incomplete as we await correspondence with nominated individuals.

PUBLICATION GUIDELINES:

We ask contributors to submit two (2) typed copies, following the format (on such issues as references and notes) of articles in this issue of TRANSFORMATION. Whilst the journal will cater for work at any level of abstraction, or detail, a number of criteria will guide the editors in selection of material for inclusion. Articles should aim for academic rigour but also clarify the political implications of the issues discussed. We are concerned not to compete with other South African journals that may cover related ground but in different ways - this will govern our selection principles. All articles will be assessed anonymously by the referees. Contributions should preferably not exceed the following lengths:

Analytical articles: 7 000 words

Debates and review articles: 3 000 words

The views expressed in TRANSFORMATION do not necessarily reflect those of the editors.
