New Appointments

Mr. I.K. Chinebuah B.A., M.A.(Lond) has been appointed a Research Fellow in Linguistics.

Mr. K. Asare Opoku B.A.(Lond.), B.D.(Yale) has been appointed a Research Fellow in Religion and Ethics.

Visiting Professors

Professor Richard Greenfield of Division of Area Studies, State University College, New Palts, New York who visited the Institute as a Visiting Senior Research Fellow returned to the United States of America.
We have now decided to charge individuals and Institutions who send in requests for copies of recordings held by the Institute.

(1) Henceforth a charge of 50NP shall be made for an item of 3 minutes duration, and items of longer or shorter duration shall be charged pro-rata. Thus 30 minutes of recordings would cost 500NP.

(2) A list of the items recorded for any individual will be made and he will be asked to give a written undertaking that he will use the material for himself or his institution and that he will not sell or publish it commercially.

(3) Photographs and documentary material on the recordings shall be ordered separately and paid for.

(4) Institutions can have free copies of our material on exchange basis. Special consideration may also be given to members of the University of Ghana who wish to have copies of recordings for study or for their enjoyment.

THE AMAURY TALBOT FUND ANNUAL PRIZE

The attention of Africanists is drawn to an Annual Prize being offered by the Amaury Talbot Fund.

The Trustees invite applications for the Prize, being the income of £5333.12.1. 4½ Consolidated Stock less expenses (approximately £150 net). The Prize will be awarded to the author or authors of the most valuable of the works of anthropological research which are submitted in the competition. Only works published during the calendar year 1967 are eligible for the award. Preference will be given to works relating in the first place to Nigeria and in the second place to any other part of West Africa or to West Africa in general. Works relating to other regions of Africa are, however, also eligible for submission.

All applications, together with two copies of the book, article or work in question, to be received by 31st December 1967 by the Trustees, Barclays Bank Limited, Trustee Department, 35/37 Broadmead, Bristol 1.

Entries will not be returned to candidates but will be at the disposal of the Judges.
