1. Vol.9, No.2,1995  Development Communication
   (Rural Communication Environmental Communication and Health Communication) Deadline 30th May.

2. Vol.9, No.3,1995  Media Education
   (Policies, Institutions, Cultural Values and Curricular Concerns)
   Deadline 30th July

   (Traditional Communication and Information Technology)
   Deadline 30th November.

   (Radio, Television and Video use in Africa) Deadline 30th March 1996

   Deadline 30th June 1996
Traditional Communication/Oramedia and Development, as the theme for the 1995 Annual Conference of ACCE, will make it possible for governments, NGOs and development agencies, whose work and services are based on social communications, to collaborate with ACCE in considering how traditional communication can interface with the modern mass media in the critical task of educating, informing and mobilizing development audiences.

The following areas of social communication will be focused in the context of traditional communication and oramedia:

Education:
Instructional, Pedagogical and curricular concerns.

Environment:
Protection, Education, Degradation and Management Issues

Health:
Gender:
Women Empowerment, Discrimination, Roles, Images and Professions

Politics:
Democracy, Governance, Media Politics and Militarism.

Research:
Communication Messages, Audiences, Sources and Channels

Technology:
Information storage, Retrieval and Transmission.

All presentations will be in the plenary sessions. Please send your abstracts before July 15 or full papers before August 15 to any of the following:
