African Journal of Political Science
Revue Africaine de Science Politique
Volume 5 Number 1 June 2000

A Journal of the African Association of Political Science, is published two times a year (June and December). Articles in the AJPS represent neither the views of the African Association of Political Science (AAPS) nor its officers. Responsibility for opinions or views expressed, and the accuracy of facts presented and published rests solely with the individual authors concerned.

Notes for Contributors

The African Journal of Political Science is an externally refereed journal published twice a year – June and December. Contributions, which may be submitted in English or French, should be not more than 8,000 words. The author’s name, rank, institutional affiliation and address should be on the title page, separate from the manuscript, to ensure anonymity in the review process. Diagrams, graphs, etc. accompanying a manuscript should come camera ready to avoid delays in production.

All contributions should be submitted on a diskette [5 1/4” 3.5”], preferably in Microsoft word or WP 5.0, 5.1, 6.0 or 6.1 accompanied by a copy of the manuscript.

Presentation:
Manuscripts should be typed double spaced on A4 single-sided and page numbered. Paragraphs should be indented by two ems unless after a heading when they should be full out to the left margin.

All headings should be left unnumbered and un-lettered. Main heading – bold, lower case (with initial caps) full out. Sub-heading – bold, italic, lower case (with initial caps), full out. E.g.

Models of Policy Dialogue

Corporatism

Technocracy

With gender, generally avoid “he” and “she” unless referring to a specific person or the sex of a person is relevant. Avoid “he/she.”

Numbers – spell out numbers up to ten but use figures above except for:
  A sequence of stated quantities, numbers, ages
  Percentages
  Measurements
  Money
  Decimals

Dates – February 1981 or February 1, 1981 NOT 1st of February 1981 or February 1st 1981
1980s NOT 1980’s

Latin words and phrases in italics

Ships – names in italics.
All references to books and articles should be identified in the text by the surname of the author, year of publication placed in parenthesis: e.g. (Mendy 1994: 95). If the author is mentioned in the sentence or section only the date of publication of the book or article and page reference should be given. Where there is more than one reference to the same author with materials published in the same year the references should be distinguished sequentially as for example, (Mendy 1994a: 95, 1994b: 100-120). Short quotations should be distinguished by the double quotation mark, but quotations of more than three lines should be indented and separated from the main paragraph. These do not need quotation marks.

End Notes (no footnotes) should be kept to a minimum, numbered consecutively, and placed at the end of the text. This should be followed by a list of References arranged alphabetically, with the surname of the author first, followed by initials, date of publication, full title of book (in italics), place of publication and name of publisher. For journal articles, the authors surname and initials should precede the date of publication, full title of article, name of journal (in italics), volume number and page reference(s).

Example

References

Research Notes – should be brief and focussed primarily on expatiating on a point (or points) arising from current research.

Review Essay – should cover substantial literature regarding a particular issue or issues.

Include a 200-250 word abstract and a signed Declaration that the manuscript has been neither published elsewhere nor sent for consideration by any other journal.
