Index

An Index (by article and review book author, article title, review book title, and reviewer) is produced for this Journal every two years as part of the appropriate issue, i.e. 7/2, 8/2, 10/2, etc.
Community Development Journal covers political, economic and social programmes that link the activities of people with institutions and government. Issues covered include, for example, community action, village, town and regional planning, community studies, and rural development. The journal occasionally sponsors conferences and seminars on relevant topics.

Community Development Journal is published four times a year and circulates in over 80 countries. It has 27 editorial correspondents throughout the world to whom initial enquiries and contributions may be sent.

Format for Submissions:
Contributions that further the aims of the Journal are welcomed, and will be refereed.
Manuscripts should be typed single-sided on A4 paper, double-spaced. Two copies of the article should be submitted and the author's name, affiliation and address should be attached to the cover, to facilitate anonymity in the refereeing of the article. One copy should be of good quality print, preferably laser-printed, although this is not essential. The article can also be sent on computer disc, either in WP51 or Mac format.

Articles in general should be of 8-9,000 words in length. However longer as well as shorter articles will be published if justified by the content of the contribution. The article should begin with an abstract of approximately 150 - 200 words.
Within the body of the text references to authors is made by author, date and page number in the following way: Makola (1982:67) indicates that: "...social development is necessary in the context of the developing world," agreeing with the view of Nkosana (1981).
Page references are normally provided where a direct quote is given.
Bibliographical references follow the body of the text and should be listed alphabetically and chronologically by author and date: in the case of books, by title, publisher and place of publication; in the case of articles by full journal name, volume, and first plus last page numbers; in the case of chapters, by title, collection title, editor, publisher and place of publication. Examples follow:

Authors receive five complimentary offprints of their article and the relevant Journal issue.
Book reviewers will receive one complimentary copy of the Journal in which the review appears. Submission of an article implies that it has not been published already nor is it being considered for publication elsewhere. Copyright of all the contents of the Journal is assigned to the School of Social Work, Harare. Permission to reprint original articles should be sought from the Editor of the Journal at the above address.
