Volume 5 No 1 1990
JOURNAL OF SOCIAL DEVELOPMENT IN AFRICA
School of Social Work
P/Bag 66022 Kopje
Harare, Zimbabwe

The journal publishes critical analyses of social development issues as they affect the poor and marginalised in society. It deals with concerns especially but not exclusively relevant to Southern Africa, and is addressed to development practitioners, social workers, planners and policy makers, academics in a variety of fields such as economics, geography, politics, sociology, psychology, social administration, and to other concerned individuals.

Published twice annually, the journal seeks to enhance understanding of the social development processes that contribute to the planning and implementation of appropriate intervention strategies at different levels. Its goal is to discover how best to target relevant and successful projects to those most in need, and how to maximise popular participation, thereby creating egalitarian and productive communities.

Social Policy and Administration

The oldest-established journal in its field, with new and up-to-date articles of interest to policymakers, administrators and fieldworkers in health, housing, social security, social work, administration and planning. Most articles are based on British practice but there is a regular column on social development in Third World countries and a recent article by Edwin Kaseke of Zimbabwe.

Annual subscription is £55 for institutions and £29.50 for individuals for the three issues per year.

The editor welcomes articles from African authors. Please address all correspondence to:
